Sermon Title : Change the World – One Heartbeat at a Time
Scripture : Mark 14:1-9
Preacher : Mr Joshua Liong

Our Act of Worship

The enduring and eternal influence of parents on their families is undeniable, yet it can be challenging to acknowledge this fact amidst the demands of daily life. Furthermore, viewing parenthood as an act of worship may be difficult due to the pain and occasional joys that accompany it.

To have that lasting, godly influence, we need to view our role as an act of worship.

Being a parent is hard but remember, you are not alone.

Wisdom

From parents who have seen it all, done it all and survived.

Mark 14:1-9

1. The unlikely woman worships with what she had (v. 3).
2. The unlikely woman worships while she could still do it (vv. 3, 8).
3. The unlikely woman worships regardless of critics (vv. 4, 5).

Our Response

Do what you can – With what you have, While you can still do it, Regardless of Critics, as your act of worship unto the Lord.

- Will you bring your alabaster jar, all you have of worth, and break it at His feet?
- Will you bring your alabaster jar, with the time you have left, and lay it at His feet?
- Will you bring your alabaster jar, as an offering to our King, every heartbeat for His glory?
