MATURE . MINISTER . MULTIPLY

2026 Theme : Evangelism and Discipleship
Sermon : Sitting at the feet of Jesus
Scripture : Luke 10:38-42
Preacher : Rev. Kenny Lee

Introduction

We sometimes read this passage as “Busy” Martha vs “Lazy” Mary. But the deeper issue is not laziness versus hard work. Martha loved Jesus. Martha served Jesus. Martha welcomed Jesus into her home. Yet somehow, in the middle of serving Jesus, she missed being with Jesus.

That raises an uncomfortable question for us today:
Is it possible to be busy for Jesus, and still neglect Jesus?

We live in a “to-do list” generation, yet also an “always tired” generation. Many Christians today are active in church, ministry, work, and responsibilities — but inwardly exhausted and spiritually distracted.

Question: Mary “sat at the Lord’s feet listening to what He said”, but Martha could not. Why?

1. Martha Was Distracted by Her Serving (v.40a)
2. Martha Was Disappointed by Mary’s “Inaction” (v. 40b)
3. Martha Was Distressed by Things That Matter Less (v.41-42)

Conclusion: Don’t let _____, or _____, rob you of what is _____.

Reflection

1. What “good things” in my life may be distracting me from spending time with Jesus?
2. Have I allowed busyness and bitterness to rob me of what is better (i.e. joy and intimacy with Christ)?
3. What is one practical step I can take this week to intentionally “sit at Jesus’ feet”?
