CALL TO WORSHIP

This is a time to humble ourselves and meditate on God that we may spend these moments in sacred communication with Him

MEDITATION VERSE

*"For the Lord hears the needy and does not despise his own people who are prisoners.
Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and everything that moves in them.
God will save Zion and build up the cities of Judah,
And people shall dwell there and possess it;
The offspring of his servants shall inherit it, and those who love his name shall dwell in it."

MATURE . MINISTER . MULTIPLY

2026 Theme : Evangelism and Discipleship

Sermon : In-Person Faith

Scripture : 1 John 1:1-4

Preacher : Rev. Dr. Kenneth Goh

Outline:

1. In-Person Relationship

2. In-Person Fellowship

Discussion

1. Embodying an Incarnational Faith in a Digital World (1 John 1:1–2)

The Apostle John emphasizes that Jesus Christ was physically heard, seen, and touched, contrasting sharply with ancient Gnostic detachment and modern digital disengagement.

- In what ways have screen reliance and virtual convenience led to shallow fellowship or privatized faith in your daily walk?
- How does the physical reality of the Incarnation—God revealing Himself in person - call us to move beyond digital mediation into costly, embodied presence with one another?

2. Moving from Surface Relationship to Interwoven Fellowship (1 John 1:3–4)

The sermon notes that while faith begins with a personal relationship, it matures in shared fellowship (koinonia), illustrated by the California Redwoods whose interwoven shallow roots withstand fierce storms together.

- Beyond casual social interaction ("eating, chatting, and drinking"), what makes Christian fellowship truly a shared life rooted in Christ?
- What is one specific, intentional step you can take within your core or close circles to interweave your life with other believers for mutual spiritual endurance and discipleship?
