2026 Theme	:	Evangelism and Discipleship
Sermon	:	Beloved Adopted Heirs of God, Don't Turn Back!
Scripture	:	Galatians 4:1-11, 21-31
Preacher	:	Bro Goh Yi Le

Big Idea:
As Christians (born of the Spirit) and known by God as his beloved adopted children and heirs, how can we turn away from faith in Jesus back to our former lives of slavery in legalism and idolatry?

Outline
V1–3: Example of Heir-children–the law as temporary guardian
V4–7: Experience and status of believers as heirs–The Gospel: Redemption, Adoption, and Heirship.

V8–11: Exclamation/appeal by Paul–You are known by God, If you return to legalism and idolatry, it will all be for nothing!

V21–31: Example of Abraham's 2 sons–Symbolize the 2 covenants
(Sinaitic covenant, born according to the flesh/human-will, slavery with no inheritance vs. Abrahamic covenant, born of the Spirit, heirs with inheritance and freedom by grace through faith).

Reflection and Discussion Questions
1. Reflect on your former way of life (legalism and idolatry) before God saved you, and how he has been faithful and brought you thus far. How can you show your gratefulness to God for his grace?

2. Do we remember that we are heirs and Christ, our inheritance, is the greatest reward–imperishable, immeasurable, and richer than all the world has to offer?

3. Do you remember that you are born of the Spirit and known by God? Reflect on your relationship with God: are you abiding in Him? Are there times when you fall into legalism or idolatry? Do you remember that all that you do should be out of love and thanksgiving to God for his grace rather than trying to earn your right standing or save yourself by law-keeping?
